

NEW ADMISSIONS (2012 - 2013)

With regard to new admissions in the Academic Year 2012 - 2013, kindly note the following points: -

1. Admission procedure to class Prep has been already started. Kindly see the notice regarding the same. The admission procedure for K.G will begin in the first week of January 2012. This is kept open only for the Tribal Catholics.
2. The school does not issue any application forms for new admissions to classes I to IX as there are no vacancies on these classes. However, written application forms may be submitted to the office from January 2012 only in transfer cases from one city to another. In case of availability of the seats, parents would be given information by the office latest by the first week of April 2012.
3. After the publication of class X BOARD Examinations, application forms will be issued for getting admission in Class XI, Science and Commerce Stream as well. This is to inform you that in Class XI, there will be a common syllabus followed in all ICSE and CBSE Schools. The students who score above 85 % and 75 % in English Science and Mathematics in Class X Examination would be eligible to apply in Science and Commerce respectively. There will be direct admissions for those who would be securing 90 % and above. Based on the application forms submitted, the list of selected candidates will be published for the admission by the first week of June 2012.
4. For any further information keep on logging the school website or call on 0651 - 2410831.
